How Do I Get HIP Plus?

There are different ways you can get HIP and get help

1 What Do I Need to Apply?

IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS

PROOF OF IDENTITY

Driver's license, social security card, or student ID

PROOF OF US CITIZENSHIP OR IMMIGRATION STATUS

Birth certificate, US passport, alien registration card, or permanent resident card

PROOF OF INCOME

Any pay stubs, child support, SSI, SSDI, or social security income

✓ Note: Only income counts.

HOUSEHOLD INFORMATION

EACH HOUSEHOLD MEMBER'S INFORMATION

Full names, dates of birth, and social security numbers

CURRENT HEALTH COVERAGE PAYMENTS

Premiums or payments currently being made for adult or child health coverage

FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS

Information on everyone's family relationship, including tax filing relationship (married, single, head of household, etc...).

Learn more about what you need to apply at <https://www.in.gov/fssa/hip/>

2 Pick an Insurer

Health insurers who provide assistance to the HIP program are called Managed Care Entities (MCEs). You have the option to pick between 4 insurers:

Each MCE has a different plan. To compare plans, visit bit.ly/planscompared

✓ Ask your MCE if your doctor and medications are covered by their plan.

3 Getting to the Finish Line

BE WATCHFUL:

Application approval can take up to 45 days. Watch your mail for the conditional approval letter and welcome packet

POWER ACCOUNT PAYMENT:

You are not enrolled in HIP Plus until you send your first POWER Account payment to your MCE.

For ways to pay, see the options for your MCE at: bit.ly/hippayment

For more information, see brochure How Do I Keep HIP Plus?

Get Help from a Navigator

Applying for HIP is easier with expert help. You can work with a certified navigator to learn the process, complete your application, file documents and more.

You can find certified navigators in your county by searching here: <https://in-fssa.my.site.com/HNav/>

Navigators can meet with you in person or online. They can advise you about other health insurance options if you don't qualify for HIP. They can serve as an Authorized Representative to help keep your coverage.
